Paul and Carole Love to Travel is your go-to blog for useful information, honest reviews, inspiration, and overall insight we wished we had the last 34 years traveling. Our travel experiences vary from budget to luxury hotel stays, cruising and exploring in our motorhome. We love to engage extensively with the travel community through our rapidly growing social media reach and blog readership.

We are Paul and Carole, a fun loving married couple in our 50's who have travelled to 42 countries and on 15 cruises. We are an easy going couple based in the UK, who really enjoy life and like to make the most out of opportunities.
